

Women's Rugby Club engages SIU in prom dress competition

Although many efforts have gone into organizing women's rugby in the Memphis area during the last twenty years, the momentum surrounding the current Memphis Women's Rugby Club has been building since 2004.

1) The Memphis Flamingos are pictured before all the action begins at their March 21 home game at East High School against the Southern Illinois University Salukis. The Flamingos later won the competition 15-0 in their first-ever prom dress game.

2) The Flamingos and Salukis form a scrum to restart after a penalty.

3) It just doesn't get any better than this, if you're a woman rugby player!

4) Jordan Wicks of the Southern Illinois Salukis surveys the competition.

5) Beth Halldorson of the Flamingos can't wait to break in her new uniform.

6) A line-out brings the ball back into bounds.

The Flamingos have had a winning spring season. Their next home games will be on April 18 against teams from Little Rock and Atlanta. Call the Women's Rugby Hotline at 901-832-3647 or see www.memphiswomensrugby.com for more information.
